Barcelona, Novemb. 21. N. S.

THE Duke of Argyle has for several Days been very ill of a Fever, which seiz'd him with so much Violence, as oblig'd him to quit the Camp at Igualada, and come to this Place, where the Remedies he has taken, have proved so Successful, that he is now pretty well recovered.

Riga, December 19. N. S. Our Magistrates two Days ago gave a magnificent Entertainment to the Czar of Muscovy and his Consort, with which they were well satisfied. Their Majesties went from hence yesterday Morning to Petersbourg, by the way of Pernel and Revel. The Czar himself has deferred giving his Answer to the Requests made to him by this Town 'till the 13th of January next, when their Deputies are to attend him at Peterfbourg.

Florence, Dec. 15. N. S. On the Eighth of this Instant, upon the arrival of a Courier from General Ubaldini, who was appointed by the great Duke to treat with General Zumjungen, the Grand Prior del Rene, went to confer with him, concerning some particular Points, in which it is said he receiv'd Satisfaction. By a Vessel which came to Leghorn on the Ninth, there is Advice, that the Squadron detach'd by Sir John Jennings to Final, with Orders to take on Board the Imperial Recruits in that Port, and carry the same to Barcelona, was safely arriv'd there. And that the Admiral was Sail'd with the rest of the Fleet to Port Mahon. We hear that Auditor Antepioni is appointed by the Great Duke to go to Milan, and receive the Investiture of Sienna from his Imperial Majesty.

Venice, December 18. N. S. The Senate endeavour to send a Supply of Men, Money and Ammunition into the Levant, where the Motions of the Turks make them very uneasy. The Admiral Correro is ordered to Sail for Corfu, and join the Fleet. Signior Albani, Nephew to the Pope, arrived here on the Eleventh, and lodges with the Nuncio. He has received the Visits of Prince Ercolani, Ambassador of the Emperor, and several Persons of Quality. He sets out on Friday for Rome, by the way of Urbino. They write from Rome, that the Pope had prohibited a Book called Artes Jesuiticae, and permitted the Jesuits to Print a sort of Defence of their Proceedings in China. There are some new Differences arisen between that Court and the Court of Portugal, occasion'd by the Pope's Command to the Bishop of Macao, a Subject of the King of Portugal, to answer for his ill Behaviour towards the Cardinal de Tournon, which Proceedings his Portuguese Majesty will not allow of. The General Steinau, who has Commanded all the Venetian Forces for the five last Years, has lately asked Leave to quit his Employment. The Senate have by an Authentick Instrument acknowledged his Services, and made him a Present of a Gold Bason. The Pope, upon the Death of Signior Cafarelli, who was Governour of Rome, has named Signior Scotti Auditor of the Rota, by Birth a Milanesse, to that Government, which Promotion is very agreeable to the Nobility. The Differences between the Court of Rome and the Duke of Savoy, are not yet Accommodated, but seem rather to encrease, his Royal Highness having issued Instructions in order to those Persons being Absolved, who were some time since Excommunicated by the Bishop of Alexandria.

Frankfort, Decemb. 30. N. S. All the Plenipotentiaries of the absent Electors had Audience of his Imperial Majesty on Saturday last. His Majesty Yesterday Treated the Electors of Mentz, Triers, and the Elector Palatin with great Magnificence. The Emperor's Departure for Vienna, is put off 'till the Eleventh of the next Month, upon which it is fixed. His Majesty will in the mean time receive the Homage of this City with the usual Formalities.

Branswick, January 1. N. S. The Duke of Wolfembuttel is gone from hence to wait upon the Emperor at Francfort. We have Advice, that Lieutenant-General Rantzaw, who Commands the Danish Troops before Wismar, had Battered the Place with great Violence for Forty-eight Hours, and thrown several Bombs into it, which put the Magistrates into such a Consternation, that they sent Deputies to request a Suspension of Arms for two Days, but it was refused them.

Hague, January 3. N. S. Here is Advice, that that the Duke of Savoy has named the Count de Maffey, who is expected here from England, Monsieur Mellaredé, who is now in Germany, and the Marquis del Borgo, who designs to go from hence to Utrecht on Tuesday or Wednesday next, to be his Plenipotentiaries in the Congress of Peace to be held at that Place.

Come in the John and Mary from Guernzy, with Salt for this Place.
